

PRODUCT INTRODUCTION

The new solution from ZIYAN UAS brings a high level of remote video transmission and monitoring to ensure ground-air data integration.

The portable video relay box allows the acquisition and display of multiple videos from different sources, up to 10 sources at the same time including; videos from multiple unmanned aerial systems, CCTV or any other source.

The video relay box can also be connected to ground control station and display the data aside with videos.